

INTERNATIONAL
MISSION BOARD

Santiago, Chile

Cliff & Cinthy
CASE

“GOD, WHAT I CAN DO, I CAN DO ANYWHERE. JUST TELL ME WHERE.”

It is that willingness to serve Christ wherever there is a need that has kept Cliff and Cinthy Case on the mission field for 29 years. And in all that time, their passion for reaching the next generation through creative church planting strategies has remained consistent.

For the past 14 years in Chile, they have used everything from English classes to sports camps and even geocaching to open doors for the Gospel and new church starts across the country.

For the past several years their roles have largely focused on equipping local Chilean pastors and planters, as well as hosting a number of collegiate missionaries from the States. And because many college students and young adults are beginning to leave the Chilean Church, this focus is now more strategic than ever.

PRAYER POINTS: Let's pray for collegiate teams to continue building relationships with local schools, and helping local church leaders with evangelism and discipleship. Let's also pray for Journeyman to come help local churches build healthy ministries to college students and young professionals, especially among the upper-class and creative communities.
